

Geelong One Fire Reconciliation Group Presents

Reconciliation in the Park

A family day and exhibition of artworks at Geelong's Johnstone Park.

All are welcome to One Fire Reconciliation Group's celebration of Reconciliation Week!

Boomerang making

Jumping Castle

Wattleseed Damper

Dancing

Face painting

Sausage sizzle

Art

Didgeridoo

Plus Clapstick making, the 'Jebeweng' dancers, net making, didgeridoo performances, and "Goori", an aboriginal hunting skills game!

An exhibition of local students' artworks will take place in the Town Hall foyer during and following reconciliation week: 27 May onwards.

Join us to promote respect and cross-cultural understanding between Australia's Indigenous and non-Indigenous people.

When: Sunday 30 May 10am-2pm

Where: Johnstone Park, Geelong. We meet on the land of the Wathaurong People.

Cost: Free Entry!

This event is part of the Are we there yet? campaign for recommitment to reconciliation. Learn more at www.antarvictoria.org.au